Privacy Policy

Midway Supply Company, Inc. respects and understands our customers' concerns about confidentiality and privacy, and we take reasonable steps to ensure that any information you give us is handled in a safe and responsible manner.

By using our Website, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. We suggest that you refer to this Privacy Policy on a regular basis as it may change, at any time in our sole discretion, in order to allow us to take advantage of technological advances or for business purposes or legal reasons.

We do not sell, lend or rent any personally identifiable information about you to any third parties outside of the our Company, its affiliates, subsidiaries, authorized agents and service providers, operating companies and other related entities.

If you supply us with your e-mail or mailing address, you may receive, mail, email, or phone calls from us announcing services or promotional events. If you do not wish to receive such you may email, mail, fax, or call us – we would be happy to remove you from our list.

We can (and you authorize us to) disclose any information about you as required by law, including voluntary disclosures to law enforcement agencies and government officials, as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate.

In the event the Company is ever sold, we reserve the right to transfer ownership of our e-mail list and other personally identifiable information to the acquiring company.

Due to the existing regulatory environment, we cannot ensure that information will never be disclosed in ways not otherwise described in this Privacy Policy. By way of example (without limiting the foregoing), third parties may unlawfully intercept or access files, transmissions or private communications. Therefore, although we use industry standard practices to protect information, we do not promise, and you should not expect, that your personally identifiable information or private communications will always remain private.
